ABOUT US

Our Heritage - Our Story

We are a Belgian family-owned company, established in the Philippines since 1999.

Born and raised in Belgium, Didier Ladriere started his own business of fruit fillings and chocolate back in his hometown in 1987.

After many years of development, he decided to embark upon an exciting adventure and create a new company in the Philippines, called DLA Naturals.

Thanks to his heritage, the skills and craftsmanship that he acquired in Belgium are applied to our exquisite recipes to this day.

In 2009, Damien Ladriere joined his father and together made the family business flourish even more.

By respecting our Belgian family's recipes, traditions and know-how, combined with the great country of the Philippines providing us with amazing products, resources and location, this unusual mix truly gives us the best of both worlds.

Let's create lasting memories together, with you and your customers.
